In Brief

I am an engineer and researcher specializing in signal processing and artificial intelligence, as well as a Python developer. In academia, my focus has been on deep learning, learning theory, image and video compression, and inverse problems. Additionally, I am Co-Founder of Radiobooks, a startup that assists independent authors and self-learners in automatically converting their books into audiobooks using AI. Through this venture, I have gained knowledge in product development and Python DevOps.

Outside the scope of my scientific expertise, I dedicate my time to exploring philosophy, psychology, meditation, ethics, and social systems. I find joy in tackling problems holistically, drawing inspiration from both ancient and modern wisdom, and considering the entire pipeline from philosophical and scientific inquiry to practical application. I appreciate engaging in thoughtful discussions, being exposed to different points of view, and—when suitable—sharing the little I know with others.

Having started traveling at a young age, I've been fortunate to have explored more than 30 countries. I speak Portuguese and English fluently, have a conversational level of Spanish, and I can get by in French.

Please note that I will be attending a course in philosophy and meditation at the Tergar Institute in Nepal between mid-September and mid-December in both 2024 and 2025.

Volunteering

- In 2022, I spent one month teaching at Sammena school in Arusha, Tanzania, to spend one month teaching at a local school. During my time there, I taught science, English, and mathematics to elementary and middle school students.
- Since 2021, I have been volunteering with CASA whenever I am in Lisbon. The goal of this organization is to help alleviate the suffering of people experiencing homelessness.
